

Is it Good for the DO's?

I Introductions of Panel

- a. John Kauffman, DO, Dean Designate Campbell University College of Osteopathic Medicine
- b. Dixie Tooke Rawlins, DO Dean, Via College of Osteopathic Medicine,
- c. Tyler Cymet, DO AACOM

II DO vs MD-Have we defined ourselves? What is a DO? How do we answer the question what is a DO?

III Growth of the profession and our schools

- a. How many DO's do we need in America?
- b. How many schools are there?
- c. How many schools should there be?
- d. Why don't we start new schools exactly where they are needed?

IV Clinical Clerkships

- a. Describe clinical clerkships in the osteopathic profession
- b. What constitutes a good clinical clerkship
- c. Should schools or students pay for clinical clerkships

V GME

- a. What is an OPTI? What do they do, and why do we need them?
- b. How does OGME differ from GME?
- c. What is Resolution 29, Resolution 42, and why should anyone care about policy (we are saving lives here! Let someone else worry about policy)

VI Practice Issues

- a. Are there any changes in how healthcare is practiced in the past few years, that we should know about?
- b. What is all this I hear about competencies, and the outcomes movement?
- c. Should we worry about other providers doing what we do?